**only one set of curriculum materials is provided; however, up to four of your staff will be eligible to attend the supplemental workshops to learn how to use the negotiation curriculum. If you know now the names or positions that would be most appropriate for this training, please provide names and contact information. We will be in touch with you and them about registration for specific events.*

Do you know of another agency or organization who could greatly benefit from this program? As someone who cares about the future of girls in our community and recognizes the importance of teaching girls how to negotiate, we value your opinion and would welcome your referrals.
